RESORT LIVING WITH 360° VIEWS

Designed by award winning architect Trevor Reitsma and built to the highest standards by equally acclaimed Andrew Vandersteen, this 18 month old home set amidst 22.38 acres of rolling green pasture, exceeds all expectations.

Stunning hinterland views meet the eye from every window in this masterpiece that is the perfect combination of clean modern lines and the warmth of natural stone and timber without compromising functionality, this home is very easy to live in.

The kitchen & dining offers flexibility between formal and casual entertaining through a seamless blackbutt timber wall of cleverly disguised integrated appliances masking a substantial butlers pantry to suit the fussiest home chef.

Spacious open plan living areas with beautiful sealed grey limestone and waxed blackbutt floors flow effortlessly through to limestone porches, spotted gum decks and all weather alfresco living zones, offering a variety of spaces to watch family and friends enjoy the grass tennis courts & 25m lap pool or simply to take in the extraordinary views
