The fully en-suited master bedroom is located down a hallway past ample storage and has views over the large rear garden and covered patio.

Two further good size bedrooms share a family bathroom with bath and shower.

A large separate laundry and potential office area sits between the lounge and the lock up garage, which also opens to the rear garden if further access for boat or camper storage is required.

Apart from being a good size and solid home, the real star here is the size of the land, all with good fencing, and the orientation of the home on the block, giving plenty of backyard space!

With a little love and attention, this solid and well laid out home, on a quiet and peaceful street, could easily be transitioned to a comfortable family home or a lucrative rental property given its proximity to Noosa.
