3A Cook St, Eumundi

CIRCA 1909 QUEENSLANDER

Situated within easy access of Eumundi School and just a short level walk to the shops, restaurants and of course, Eumundi Markets. This early Queenslander offers much of what we love about these traditional homes, including 3 metre ceilings and polished timber floors.

Currently utilised by Eumundi Physio, the home's location offers distinct benefits for those wishing to operate a home business with great exposure and plenty of off street parking. Alternatively the rear of the 577m2 lot offers room for home extensions or a shed if required.

Whether you live in and enjoy as is or make improvements, this iconic home offers the unmistakable warmth & charm of a bygone era.

- Open plan living with feature leadlight windows
- 3 bedrooms with tall sash windows and good natural light
- Master with loads of built in upper storage
- Fully restumped on reinforced concrete stumps
- Uncommon Crows Ash hard wood floors & 3 metre ceilings
- Hard wood external cladding & re-timbered Merbau decks
- Enough car park space at rear for 5 cars, a shed or an extension
